Western Forest Products Announces Board of Director Changes

November 13, 2014 – Vancouver, British Columbia – Western Forest Products Inc. (TSX: WEF) (“Western” or the “Company”) announced today that Pierre McNeil and Peter Gordon, representatives of the Company’s former majority shareholder Brookfield Special Situations, resigned from Western’s Board of Directors following today’s Board meeting. Mr. McNeil had served as a director since December 2007, while Mr. Gordon had served as a director since July 2010, as well as a period from July 2004 to June 2006.

“On behalf of the Board, we would like to thank Mr. McNeil and Mr. Gordon for their significant contributions to the Company,” said Lee Doney, Chairman of Western Forest Products Inc.

The Board of Directors is pleased to announce the appointment of Mike Waites to the Board. Mr. Waites is the past President and CEO of Finning International Inc. and currently serves as a director of HudBay Minerals Inc., and Talisman Energy Inc. Mr. Waites brings more than 30 years of international experience in the natural resource, transportation, and distribution industries. He has extensive expertise in financial management, leadership, and acquisitions.

Western Forest Products Inc.

Western is an integrated Canadian forest products company, and is the largest coastal British Columbia woodland operator and lumber producer. The Company has an annual available harvest of approximately 6.4 million cubic metres of timber, of which approximately 6.2 million cubic metres is from Crown lands. Western has a lumber capacity in excess of 1.1 billion board feet from eight sawmills and two remanufacturing plants. Principal activities conducted by the Company include timber harvesting, reforestation, sawmilling logs into lumber and wood chips, and value-added remanufacturing. Substantially all of Western’s operations, employees and corporate facilities are located in the coastal region of British Columbia, while its products are sold in more than 25 countries worldwide.
