

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION POLICY

Western Forest Products Inc. and its subsidiaries (the “Company”) value the benefits of diversity and inclusion, which promote different perspectives and ideas and improves oversight, decision-making and governance. The Company seeks to maintain a Board of Directors (“Board”) and executive team composed of talented and dedicated individuals with a collectively diverse mix of experience, skills and backgrounds.

The Company believes in promoting diversity through careful consideration of the knowledge, experience, skills and backgrounds of each individual candidate in light of the Company’s needs. Accordingly, the Company has not adopted specific diversity targets.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to set out the Company’s commitment to, and strategy for, establishing and maintaining a diverse and inclusive Board and executive team.

Scope

This policy applies to the Company, including its directors, officers and employees.

Responsibility

The Board is responsible for promoting and ensuring compliance with this policy. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board will review this policy annually and assess its effectiveness and will report the results of its review to the Board.

All questions or concerns relating to this policy should be referred to the Company’s Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary.

Definitions

“designated groups” has the definition provided in the Employment Equity Act and includes women, aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities and members of visible minorities.

“diversity” means differences in race, national or ethnic origin, colour, religion, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, marital or family status, disability and other personal characteristics.

Approach

With a view to promoting diversity amongst the executive team and Board, we commit:

- When recruiting executives and identifying suitable candidates for appointment or re-election to the Board, the Company and Board will consider candidates using objective criteria with due regard to the benefits of diversity and the needs of the Company.
- That the Company and the Board will seek to extend its recruitment efforts beyond the network of existing Board members or executive management and to include the identification of candidates who are members of the designated groups.
- That any search firm engaged to help identify candidates for appointment to the Board or as an executive will be directed to include candidates who are members of the designated groups.
